

ROBERT ARTZ DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Artz Award was initiated by IPRA because of Bob Artz's legacy of service to the park and recreation profession. The recipient's efforts must have had lasting value and must have created an awareness of the importance of parks and recreation among his/her colleagues and the community in which the person works. It is our most valued and respected Individual award.

Nominations must be received by FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2010

Candidates must meet the following criteria:

- IPRA professional member
- Minimum ten years experience in the park and recreation field, of which at least five years have been in Illinois

In narrative form, please include the following information for the consideration. The nomination should not exceed five pages.

Primary selection criteria:

- Dedication and expression for developing quality parks, facilities and recreation services, fortified by a desire to attain achievable goals
- Outstanding administrative ability, high moral standards, and a strong commitment to leisure service
- Use of citizen advisory committees in the planning and implementation of agency programs and projects

Other relevant criteria:

- Professional involvement (IPRA committees/boards, national and regional service, local professional service)
- Professional leadership (parks and recreation activities in related fields)
- Community leadership (service to local community through service clubs, United Way, church, public speaking, work with citizen boards and advisory committees)
- Written communication (articles in professional magazines and professional manuals, news articles, and research projects)
- Other pertinent activities and awards (professional awards, National Gold Medal, and outside recognition)
